No. 3/2022

Dear members and friends of the Ruth Cohn Institute for TCI-international,

Our world has gone off the rails.

The war in Ukraine has deeply shaken confidence in a peaceful coexistence in Europe. Even if many have become somewhat accustomed to it in the meantime, the far-reaching consequences keep us on tenterhooks.

The Covid 19 pandemic changed the way we live together. It became clear that health is a fragile commodity and that respect and tolerance towards those who think differently cannot be taken for granted.

Physical closeness appeared to be a dangerous need and some friendships broke up because of different views on vaccination.

Prolonged drought and heat in our part of Europe endanger crop yields and deplete water supplies in the long term. Our climate and the ecology of the earth are out of balance, largely due to a one-sided understanding of industrial use of resources and a narrow view of economic growth. These and other global disturbances relentlessly flush issues to the surface that can no longer be ignored.

According to our understanding of TCI, disruptions are about finding, taking seriously, and addressing the issues that report in them. This prevents us from continuing as before. The point is to turn to these newly visible themes and concerns with priority, to let ourselves be challenged by them and to enter the process with them.

As a rule, this can only be done together (with the group), because usually no one alone has the right solution. We need each other, the exchange, the conflict, the solidarity, the struggle for the next step. And we need confidence in the joint process, without knowing in advance where it will lead us.

This is what we as a TCI community and as individuals could bring to the social challenges: our understanding and our way of dealing with disturbances (even if this does not always work, even for us).

From my point of view, this is the serious case of what Ruth Cohn wanted with TCI: not (just) nice courses, but a better world.

Wolfgang Schneider-Pannek

1. 50 years of WILL in Europe, presentation and material by Matthias Scharer

On 27 August 1972, on Ruth Cohn's 60th birthday, WILL Europe be founded in Küsnacht (Switzerland) in Elisabeth Bollag's house. We took this event, now 50 years ago, as an opportunity to reflect on our roots on the first day of IGA in May 2022.

Brigitte Mazohl reviewed the time in America and in Europe 50 years ago and recalled what was going on in politics and society. Matthias Scharer created an appealing PowerPoint presentation on the beginnings of WILL and the background and intentions Ruth Cohn had with WILL and TCI from the extensive sources of the estate.

Following this, Wolfgang Schneider-Pannewick read excerpts from texts that the still living WILL founding members, Helmut Meinshausen and Klaus Vopel, had written for this occasion, and made available to us.

After these impulses, the participants talked thematically in small groups about the suggestions from the thoughts presented and continued to think about them. In the plenary session that followed, it was noted several times that we had landed in the middle of current, today's questions.

All the texts mentioned and the impulses for the discussion groups are uploaded on Mydrive. They can be used for discussion groups in the regions and professional groups. Those responsible in the member associations have access to them and can make them available to interested persons.

2. RCI international Board Meeting in Berlin

In July (15 - 17.07.2022), the presence meeting of the board took place in Berlin.

Unfortunately, Ute could not be there live for family reasons. We connected her via zoom in one afternoon. We reviewed the IMV of May and planned the next steps resulting from it and prepared the extraordinary, digital, IMV in September.

In close proximity to the Wall Memorial, a symbol of separation and connection, we had constructive work sessions and a small educational program.

All other board meetings of the year took place and still take place online, as well as the many individual consultations in between by mail or Zoom.

3. TCI movie "Ein Weg zur Menschlichkeit" (engl. A path to humanity)

As part of a project in the master's programme "Applied Educational Sciences" at the Protestant University of Applied Sciences in Nuremberg, a student together with a professional filmmaker and a dubbing artist created a ten-minute animated film about Ruth Cohn and TCI. Ina von Seckendorff, Jai Wanigesinghe and David Steffen kindly made the film available to the RCI. Many thanks for this!

The german film "Ein Weg zur Menschlichkeit" can be found on our RCI-website and is welcome to be used and distributed:

4. Invitation to the periodic peace meeting, 24. September 2022, online – RCI Österreich

Every month on the 24th we commemorate the invasion of Ukraine and invite you to a peace meeting under the motto: "From peace consumption to peace work". For a long time it seemed self-evident to live without military force in Europe. Wasn't peace just there, like a commodity that could be consumed?

Now we are becoming more aware of the fragility of "peace". How can we contribute to work for peace? Or as Ruth Cohn said: "be - and do - something for peace."

Our meetings are tentatively online, the first was on Thursday, March 24, 2022, 07:30 – 09:00 pm, the second on Sunday, April 24, 2022 and the next will be on Wednesday, 24. August and on Saturday 24 of September 2022.

Want to participate?

5. 30th Symposium of the Specialist Group on Supervision, 10-11 September 2022, Neudietendorf (near Erfurt)

Topic: The changing world - how can we accept and cope with crises today?

ruth cohn institute for TCI international fachgruppe supervision

Abstract: The last few years have challenged us as individuals, but also our entire society, and confronted us with major changes. The question of how to deal well with questions of life and the future occupies many of us personally - and as supervisors we are often challenged in new ways. How can we develop courage, confidence and the power to act - for ourselves and in professional counselling settings?

Direction: Dr. phil. Sibilla Marelli-Simon, Basel

Information and registration: <https://www.fachgruppe-supervision.de/aktuell.html>

6. RBDO Training Day - We can also live differently: Sustainably! 17 September 2022, Berlin-Friedenau

We can do things in other ways: live sustainably! What does that mean for me and for us as TCI practitioners?

RCI Berlin/ Deutschland-Ost is organizing a seminar on this topic in September.

'The world is our task. It does not meet our expectations. However, if we work for it, this world will be beautiful. If not, it will be nothing', wrote Ruth Cohn in her response to Fritz Pearls' Gestaltgebet.

What does this mean for us ourselves? In our private lives, professionally, in our seminars? We want to explore these questions together.

And we want to do this with a special method: LEGO SERIOUS PLAY®.

LEGO SERIOUS PLAY® enables people to express themselves and their ideas with LEGO® models, to exchange ideas and to arrive at new ideas and perspectives.

Elements of play, construction and cooperation are essential here, with the aim of reaching a state of flow (great mental clarity, strong feeling of self-efficacy).

We will try out together whether and how we succeed in this.

We have been able to win our TZI colleague Prof. Dr. Gero Wedemann as an expert for LEGO SERIOUS PLAY®, who has been using the method for years at the University of Stralsund.

All RCI members and people interested in TCI are invited.

Date: Saturday 17.09.2022, 11:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Location: LIFE e.V. | Rheinstraße 45 | 12161 Berlin-Friedenau

Fee: 50 € (30 € for members of the RCI-BDO)

Registration: Gesina Kegel, gesina.kegel@web.de, Tel. 0177 7061103

As the number of LEGO® kits for building and the space are limited, we have to limit the number of participants to 16.

We look forward to seeing you!

Corinna Heimeshoff, Andrea Simon, Board RCI-BDO

7. Hike in the triangle around Rottenbuch, 1 October 2022, RCI München

Being on the road is good for you

Because TCI is holistic ...

Because we move a lot in our heads, but the body often gets a raw deal ...

Because it is good to set out in a group ...

Because completely different conversations come about ...

Because the landscape in which we live is beautiful ...

Because the RCI Munich is an active and varied region ...

These Boots are made for walking

... we cordially invite all members of the regions Munich and Franconia and all relatives and friends to a hike.

Meeting point and start of the tour: Saturday, 01.10 2022, 01.00 pm at the monastery church in 82401 Rottenbuch. Parking is possible there (a bus will take you there from Weilheim or Peiting).

Itinerary: Short visit to the famous monastery church, then hike on the Pfaffenwinkler Milchweg, stop for refreshments at the Schönegger Käsealm, pure walking time about 2 hours, family-friendly round tour with wonderful views.

Equipment: Hiking boots and hiking clothes

Direction, information and registration: Dr. Thomas Echtler, Tel. 08867/8116, dr.echtler@t-online.de; certified hiking guide, TZI instructor.

Registration by 24.09.2022 at the latest

Weather: The hike will take place in almost any weather. If the forecast should be very bad, information about a possible cancellation can be obtained from Thomas Echtler the evening before.

8. Hybrid TCI Community of Planetary Citizens, Online-Meeting, 30 September 2022, RCI Lage Landen

"Being human doesn't mean being meaninglessly brought into this world, but rather finding meaning in the realization of the individual self, that is a part of the community of all."

Thanks to and based on the input and feedback of many people in the TCI network and landscape, the hybrid TCI community of planetary citizens will soon be a reality!

In the international landscape of many different TCI activities, assemblies, and initiatives, there will soon be a new space to meet each other... The Hybrid TCI community of Planetary Citizens will be a cross-regional and internationally oriented community, inspired by Ruth Cohn's thoughts and aspirations on being a planetary citizen. Our working language is English, our meetings are both online and live.

The community aims to focus on inspiring meetups that are dedicated to the meaning of TCI in personal life, work, and societies, as planetary citizens. The community's holacratic way of organizing itself will support this topic/content driven focus.

What we envision

What we envision for this Hybrid TCI Community is a vibrant, inclusive community that people enjoy being a part of. A network where we practice living learning and share TCI with everyone who also sees TCI as a sustainable and relevant approach to current and urgent questions in our lives and societies. With hybrid meeting possibilities as a contemporary way to connect, share and inspire (meaning that there is space for both online meetings and physical gathering). With TCI as the foundation, a warm welcome for everyone and every method that fits this basis. Ruth Cohn's call to act responsibly as a part of the whole, society and world, inspires us. We therefore focus on being Planetary Citizens and what this means to us in daily life and work.

"Setting up camp and starting our journey!"
Welcome to the first Planetary citizens meetup on September, 30th 2022

Perhaps you have been part of one of the conversations that led to the founding of this community (we have tried to reach as many people as we could), or perhaps this is news to you. No matter where you are, we warmly invite you to join us on the 30th of September for a festive meeting with the theme "Setting up camp and starting our journey!"

Part of the agenda will be:

- getting to know each other and this community space
- announcement of the meet ups by the organizing groups
- presentation of the online basecamp of our community, it's possibilities and functionalities
- the celebration of this new founded Hybrid TCI community of Planetary citizens!

Place and time

We'll meet online 02.30–05.00 pm CEST (so 2 hours ahead of UTC).

Want to join us (or know more)? Please send us an E-Mail:

hybridtcicommunity@gmail.com

We hope to meet you there!

Planetary greeting from the Coordination team,
Carolien Vink, Ingeborg Kooger, Thea Beentjes and Linde Sevenhuijsen

(PS. There's room for more people to join us! We hope and aim to become a more diverse team in the near future)

9. Web Seminar: Get a Taste of TCI, 5 October 2022 - RCI Luxembourg

Do you know the situation, that you want to explain TCI in a short way to your friends or colleagues? But then you realize that it is not easy and there is not enough time to do so?

Therefore, there is the online-offer "Theme centered Interaction – get familiar with TCI, get oriented and get informed". Steffi Adam-Bott, Karin Gante and Dorit Keese reported in the RCI-News No. 2/22.

Within the Web-Seminar we use PPP for short inputs and small groups for personal exchange, to get in touch with TCI and possibly arise curiosity and the desire for more.

We started in October 2021 in the region Rheinland-Westfalen with a first trial. After encouraging feedback we repeated the offer in February 2022. Members of other regions showed their interest in the format. Now Anke Stephan and Elfriede Wollmann-Köthe want to offer this opportunity to all members of the region RCI Luxemburg via Mail ... "forwarding explicitly desired".

The next meeting will take place on 5th of October 2022 from 06:00–08:00 pm. This time is convenient for Luxemburg, since interested people can be invited to the next "Regionaltag" in January 2023.

We are looking forward to an active participation. Anke as well as Elfriede are going to take part as contact persons for RCI.

If you have any questions or are interested, please contact Steffi Adam-Bott by email: <mailto:post@berufundperspektive.de>

With kind regards
Dorit Keese for the moderating-team

10. TZI-Punkt: the regional exchange meeting of the RCI Württemberg, 8 October 2022 in Tübingen

"Ukraine, a country unknown to us" – Attempt at an approach with TCI

Saturday 08.10.2022 Tübingen, 09:30 am to 5:30 pm

Ukraine - a country we were not very familiar with until recently. Kiev - Carpathians - the Black Sea: what else do we know? Vikings - Russians - Ukrainians: who lives there? Orthodox - Jews - Muslims: what do Ukrainians believe?

Ukraine gained independence in 1991, six presidents have ruled since then, 2004 was the year of the "Orange Revolution", since 2014 there has been war in the east, the so-called People's Republics of Luhansk and Donetsk have been claimed by Russian separatists and Crimea has been annexed as an "autonomous republic". Since Russia's invasion on 24 February 2022, war has been raging.

Our guest and speaker, Dr Olena Menshykova, is a lecturer at the National Metschnikov University in Odessa and has been living in our region as a refugee since March. She will introduce us to her country, share her experiences of flight and her expectations for the near future.

Kind regards from RCI Württemberg

11. Hike "TCI on soles", 14 October 2022 - RCI Luxembourg

On the 14.10.2022 there will be a hike in the region of RCI Luxembourg.

Meetingpoint at 3 pm in 54486 Mühlheim/
Mosel: Marktstraße - Parkplatz Bergfried/
Ecke Talweg

Walking time about 2,5h – indeed individually adaptable, there are some "shortcuts". 😊

Dinner will be at 06:30 pm at "Hotel zur Post",
Hauptstraße 65

We are looking forward to an inspiring, lively, just TCI-like exchange on soles!

12. iLead Questionnaire®: Mirror for our Art of Leading, workshop by Ivo Callens at the symposium in Berlin, 22 October 2022

Saturday, October 22th – at the international symposium in Berlin – Ivo Callens from the Centre for Generative Leadership will lead a workshop on Ruth’s legacy in what it takes to lead ourselves in and through the transitions and the pandemic transformation – in the breathtaking Globe we experience.

Hereby the iLead Questionnaire® will be presented. This maps your personal & professional self-leadership, from our inner Source, navigating to the renewal we heavenly need. The 132 questions you answer are about how you focus and handle your attention on ‘I-WE-IT-GLOBE’, and this more detailed on the physical, emotional, mental, and spiritual level. - Nice if you’re there!

13. Online reading circle for the TCI journal, 15 November 2022, RCI Luxembourg

“Theme-centered interaction. We explore, connect and discuss individual perspectives on professional impulses”

We would like to use this event to both bring TCI-practitioners in contact with each other and look at the current (professional) impulses within TCI.

After a short joint „hello (again)“, Lucia Hubig (member of the journals editorial team and the RCI Luxembourg) will give a brief insight into different aspects and the development of the TCI journal as well as the current focus topic “Next ones please ... On the relationship between generations”.

Online-Reading Circle from the RCI
Luxemburg

We then have the opportunity to talk about individual aspects of the main topic or specific texts. We would like to encourage you to contribute your own impulses questions that emerged from reading and make them available in this format. To do so, it might be helpful to have read the texts in advance - but it is not required for participation. Reading an article together may also be one way of participating.

All of the above is scheduled for Tuesday, 15. November, 06:30 to 08:15 pm CET in a digital Zoom-Conference. If after 08:15 pm you decide to stay for a hot or cold beverage, you are most welcome to do so.

You may login via your browser (Chrome, Firefox, Opera):

Or via Zoom-App:

Meeting-ID:880 3287 1321

Code:183729

If we've piqued your curiosity, we ask that you express your interest in attending to rci_lux@yahoo.com to help us in our preparations. Irrespective of this, your spontaneous participation is also very welcome.

We also accept specific content-related interests and requests in advance.

For the RCI-Luxembourg,

Lenard Roseland-Geffert

14. Future Lab 2023, german and english event, ONLINE

“Responsibility is my answer to life - Searching with TCI”

The Future Lab takes place once a year and provides the framework for TCI graduates and postgraduates to discuss theme-centred interaction in the light of recent theories and current applications. It is intended to examine the self-evident, to review fundamentals and to further develop TCI in theory and practice.

In this way, the Future Lab aims to contribute to quality development and assurance within RCI. The leadership team creates the framework for a collegial exchange, for joint creative work on topics and a jointly designed living process.

Instead of guiding questions, we have developed a word cloud on the topic:
"Responsibility is my answer to life"

We want to work with you on these keywords and try out and reflect on different perspectives.

German / English:

We offer a Future Lab in German on 27 and 28.01.2023 and an English-language Future Lab on 4.3.2023.

15. E-Book tip "Gruppen leiten ohne Angst" (eng. Leading groups without fear) by Irene Klein

"Gruppen leiten ohne Angst" (Leading Groups without Fear) by Irene Klein has already been published by Auer-Verlag in the 18th edition. It is not a revised edition, but instead the book on "Introduction to TCI" is now also available as an e-book.

About the content: Group dynamic processes can sometimes have unexpected effects. This handbook, proven in practice, takes away the fear of working with groups. The volume is a clearly written introduction to the attitude and method of theme-centred interaction (TCI).

The book can be ordered, only in German, directly from the publisher:

<https://www.auer-verlag.de/>

16. Book tip "Theme-Centred Interaction (TCI) in Conversation" by Margit Oster-tag and Michael Bayer

In early August, a TCI edited volume by Michael Bayer and Margit Ostertag was published: Theme-Centered Interaction (TCI) in Conversation. Helping to shape society.

<https://www.vandenhoeck-ruprecht-verlage.com/>

The aim of the volume is to further develop the scientific anchoring of TCI and to make its socio-critical dimension visible (more), as the two authors also recently discussed in a lecture:

17. Congratulations...

We would like to congratulate all members who had birthdays in July and August! Special birthday wishes from Dorit Keese for Karin Prölss.

All the best and good health! 🎁 🌿

Karin Prölss turns eighty in September!!!

Dear Karin, I met you in 1991 at our Diploma Workshop.

Shortly afterwards I moved from „Niedersachsen“ to the Rheinland“ and you encouraged me to work with you on the preparation of the International Exchange Workshop 1995. You were on the board of the „Rheinland-Westfalen“ region at that time and beyond for many years.

From 1994-1997 we took part the supervision training together and always driving to Tauberbischofsheim together.

There you also became my friend. You are an impressive woman: authentic and clear, courageous and courageous, helpful and sensitive, appreciative and critical, constant and reliable. You are a woman who is still very active - e.g. fond of travelling, interested in art and culture and in people as well as in everything that happens in the world.

Happy Birthday, Fotocredit:Pixaby

I have led 5 Basic Trainings and countless courses with you. You accompanied many TCI teachers on their way to Diploma or Graduation, wrote numerous recommendations and contributed to the dissemination of TCI in other professional fields, such as the „Pastoral Kolleg“. I was in a joint intervision group with you for over 15 years.

Today you continue this work in a quality circle. You started the TCI regulars' table in Düsseldorf, and you are still one of our spokespersons for the regional graduates. Furthermore, you are very persistent when it comes to our association. For example, you are once again trying to organise a Regional Exchange Workshop in 2023 and are not letting yourself be put off by any obstacles. Dear Karin, I thank you for all the various suggestions and the time I was allowed to spend with you, whether in TCI activities or privately.

Also on behalf of the Ruth Cohn Institute and all graduates, I thank you for your great commitment. You have worked not only on the regional but also on the International Board and have always made great efforts to win over colleagues to work on the International Board. You have been working on our course catalog for years, in the past on the seminar directory and today on the correction of the respective offers on the platform. I wish you wonderful years with beautiful moments and happiness, health and many enriching encounters with other people!

Yours, Dorit Keese

18. Call for papers: Issue 2/2023 - Peacemaking in times of war

As we were reflecting on the theme for our 2/2023 issue, Russia had attacked Ukraine two weeks earlier. This seemed inconceivable.

As perceptive and involved individuals, we closely follow current events and respond to them by acting via our emotions, ideas and values. Ruth Cohn knew it and so do we today: there are many people who “look at what is essential with their hearts” and actively contribute to a “warming peace” (R. Cohn).

We are interested in concept on how to work for peace. These can be (societal-) political or (inter)-religious approaches. They can be contributions to conflict resolution based on mediation or non-violent communication or constructive forms of dispute and arguments. They can explore issues such as how to deal with an increasing militarization of language or (unchecked) aggressive behavior. Or describe projects which working with persons concerned by the war in an effort to help them heal.
