

Statutes

(decided by the General Assembly 2001, last modification by the General Assembly 2014)

	Preamble
	The "Ruth Cohn Institute for TCI – INTERNATIONAL" (formerly WILL INTER-NATIONAL) was founded for the purpose of representing and enhancing "Theme-Centered Interaction" (TCI), as developed since the 1960's by the psychotherapist Ruth C. Cohn. It holds the rights to the use and supervision of the teaching method, name and trademark rights linked to Themenzentrierte Interaktion nach Ruth C. Cohn®. TCI is an educational concept, based on equal consideration of the following four factors: The relevant issue, the situation of the individuals involved the circumstances of the present discussion or working group and the external conditions of the working environment. TCI is based on the following three axioms: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The human being is a psycho-biological unit and a part of the universe. Thus he or she is autonomous and interdependent at the same time. The greater his or her awareness of this interdependence with everything and everybody, the greater the autonomy of the individual is. 2. Reverence is due to everything living and to its growth. Respect for growth causes decisions based on value-judgement. What is human is valuable, what is inhuman threatens values. 3. Free will occurs within conditional internal and outer boundaries; expansion of these boundaries is possible ⁽¹⁾ The decisions taken on 15. 01. 2000 at the GA in Gelnhausen are the basis for these statutes.
Art. 1	Name and Seat/Headquarters
	The "Ruth Cohn Institute for TCI – INTERNATIONAL" (formerly "WILL-International") is an association according to article 60ff of the Swiss Civil Code and has its headquarters in Basle, Switzerland. The association is governed by Swiss law.
Art. 2	Purpose and goals of the association
